Enviable Record Made by Dr. E. H. Irvin, Retiring President of Board.

Dr. E. H. Irvin, elected president of the school board four years ago when the nudit showed a deficit of $55,000.

the madit showed a deficit of $33,000, tetred Blonday night with the schools on a cash basis. It was at Dr. Irvin's suggestion and under his supervision that the audit existent, for the first time, was installed in the school. F. E. Sawer was appointed auditor. The mudit taken for April 1916, showed the $35,000 desired. The following July the deficit went to approximately $25,000. By

Board to Reorganise.

Bocause the new members elected, Robert L. Holliday and Dr. James H. Pickett, were not present, the board decided to hold a meeting at h oclock Tuesday afternoon to elect officers amoreorannize. J. E. Morgan, vice president of the board, is being boomed for president. He is the oldest member. Frank Simmons, the next oldest member, is being considered for the presidency (Informe Adams, rederted, is a possibility.

Total of 235 votes were cust in the school trustees election as shown by the returns canvansed Monday night. With the exception of the 600 votes east when Dr. Irvin was president, that is the inrest number polled for several years. Four years ago there was strong opposition, there being two theorems in the felid, the Citizens and Democratic ticket. In the present election there was no opposition. Chilicense Adams Led.

Of the candidates, Ciaborne Adams with 504 votes led the ticket. Dr. James A. Pickett was next with 352. Evidently an effort was made by some to elect women as members of the board. Mrs. E. Kohlberg received it votes and Mrs. Charices De Graff, E. Two votes were cast for Dr. Irvin and one for Mr. Andreas. Dr. Howard Thempson received three votes and Dr. Rawlings two.

Just 252 votes were cast in precinct, that being the greatest mumber for any premint. Precinct 8 with 552 was second.

Saved by Germans.

A bitter attraigment of the American government for its lack of probation of Americans in Maxico is contained in a printed circular issued by American refugees aboard the S. S. "Experience," when the ship was lying in quarantine in Gelveston harbor. A ropy of the statement was brought to fel than by one of the Americans who made his eache from banuce, state of Veracus, Mex.

The haper is hended a "statement of facts to the people of the United States by 272 rangees from Tampico," and is subscribed to be all of facts as they commend during the recent fighting about Tampico. The interest, which rowers events during the fighting between rebell and federals between April 6 and 15 and the safescotont disturbed thies, reads in part as follows:

Americans Were Menaced.

The bitterness of the Mericans against Americans became general, rimost to the point of victonness. The Americans kept as close as somable to their homes or places of luminess with rouffilence in themselves and their flag to protect their lives and property wherever they might be.

"At nearly the height of this dancerois crisis and through somebody's simpletty, the flagship Delphin, cruiser Chester and gunbout Des Moines in the harbor and aiready stripped for action, raised annehor at 2 a.m., April 21 and sailed out to sea, withdrawing the last residicy of American protection in Tampico, and with them went from the breasts of 2000 Americans, some, women and children, who witnessed it, the limit hope, admiration and pride in their American citizenship and the American flag."

"LOST IN MID OCEAN."

The Bijou today presents "Lost in Mid Ocean." in three mussive parts. This is one of the "quality features," and is an overtowering masterpince by the great Vitagraph company. Any one who has seen the other quality features the Bijou has been showing will tell you they are supreme in every respect. This one will be a picture for those who know. The sinking of a great ocean liner after striking an leeberg, with its human cargo, is alone worth the price. A strong and passionate love story is, however, the feundation of this play. Come to the mailines if possible, as seats will be acarce at night and you can't afferd to miss this feature. Vitagraph features are always good.—Advertisement. " LOST IN MID OCEAN."
